

Obstetrician and Gynecologist
Department of Obstetrics, Gynecology and Newborn Care, The Ottawa Hospital,
University of Ottawa

The Department of Obstetrics, Gynecology and Newborn Care at The Ottawa Hospital in conjunction with the Department of Obstetrics & Gynecology at the University of Ottawa is seeking an Obstetrician-Gynecologist to help fulfil their vision and mission. The successful incumbent will work clinically in the Division of General Obstetrics and Gynecology and will report to the Division Head and Chair/Chief of the Department of Obstetrics, Gynecology and Newborn Care.

Applicants must be eligible for an academic appointment within the Department of Obstetrics & Gynecology at the University of Ottawa. A strong clinical background in general obstetrics/gynecology and/or demonstrable experience and excellence in teaching, research, quality initiatives, or clinical care would be highly valued. Additional areas of clinical expertise that would strengthen our current clinical programs, including but not limited to Transgender Care, Pelvic Pain, Complex Gynecologic Surgery or Sexual Medicine, would be welcome. While not required, completion or enrollment in a relevant Master program would be considered an asset to the Department (e.g. Public Health, Health Care Management, Epidemiology, or Medical Education).

The position involves clinical work, including on call duties, and teaching of all levels of trainees including medical students, residents, and fellows. All faculty members can support our Department's robust research program through collaboration and involvement in patient recruitment. The appointee should be a team player, be able to interact effectively with patients, colleagues, staff and management, and function well in a high-volume environment with a commitment to provision of high quality patient and family centered care.

Eligibility

- Certified by the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada (Obstetrics and Gynecology) or equivalent
